Attached is H.R. 3651, introduced by Congressman Henderson, who is Chairman of the House Committee on Post Office and Civil Service. The bill would base the "high 3" figure for computation of a retiree's annuity on his salary as specified in the General Schedule irrespective of the $36,000 limit. We have no indication of the prognosis of this bill, except that it is before Mr. Henderson's own committee so presumably it will have a good chance there.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Office of Legislative Counsel

SUBJECT : Proposed Congressional Bill

1. One of OD&E's employees recently inquired about a bill which he understood was before the Congress. It reportedly provided for the abolition of the $36,000 ceiling in the computation of a retiree's "high three" average salary.

2. If a bill like this is under consideration, I would appreciate your sending me a copy.
